Chapter 1 by Phantim

It was long ago, in a time when darkness still ruled the earth. There were even then, however, men and women who were willing to fight it.

Chapter 2 by Molly G

Men and women, willing to sacrifice, willing to give up everything they had, everything had worked towards to try, desperately try to keep the world from becoming a pit of darkness with no hope. Without these people, the world as we now it would be quite different...

Chapter 3 by Molly G

This is their story, a story of bravery, sacrifice, love and above all- hope. A story where the people stood in unity to defend their world, their lives...this is their story.

Chapter 4 by Phantim

They had been fighting the darkness for nearly a thousand years. Just a few men and women standing against the dark forces. But they had to...

But something unexpected happened. They were each visited in a dream and given a name; a name to identify their best quality.

Chapter 6 by avianwings

They were the Saints, and with each member, an insignia was burned into their skin, waking them from their dreams. The scar at the nape of each neck bound them to their cause, and to each other.

Chapter 7 by Queerio Cheerio

Called to their newfound duty, they fought with their gifts and their determination for centuries, turning from legend to myth to whispered shadows stirring hope, and later, fear. One by one the Saints began to fall from their role as guardians, turning to embrace the darkness, corrupted by the years of constant failure.

Chapter 8 by -

All except one - Mastroy, the darkest minded of them all. For her, she had the opposite effect; instead of becoming more evil, she became more understanding of the world and her degrading comrades.

Chapter 9 by -

Mastroy realized she was the only one who could complete the mission. But she would need to find a few people that she could depend on...

Chapter 10 by -

She chose Phantim and Skeld, two warriors who had experience and expertise in fighting.

~~Together the three would set out on the dangerous mission~~
